

Dominique Werts is an ATS Application Engineer at ASCO Power Technologies, a business unit of Schneider Electric. With 16 years of experience at the company, he has developed a deep expertise in ATS products and their various applications. Throughout his tenure at ASCO, Dominique has taken on multiple roles, demonstrating his ability to navigate the workspace and advance his career. He currently serves as the president of the Welcome Chapter of the Black Professional Employee Resource Network and is an active member of the One Voice Committee for the Application Engineering team.